

My Air Force Benefits Website

GETTING STARTED

The Air Force, in partnership with the Army, recently launched the MyAirForceBenefits website.

This site is accessible at: <https://myairforcebenefits.altess.army.mil/> by accessing a .mil network or via your personal home network.

Total Force Airmen may access their personal information to utilize the benefit calculators via CAC or DS Logon.

The site provides access to a wide array of benefits fact sheets and resource locators, which do not require a CAC or DS Logon to utilize.

The MyAirForceBenefits website provides information and tools to plan, budget, calculate and prepare for Retirement, Separation, Deployment, Re-enlistment, Thrift Savings Plan, Support for survivor, Estate planning, and more.

A full-time help desk with live operator support is provided to assist our Total Force Airmen with all military benefits-related questions.
